

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, lawyers of good will across our state and nation play significant roles in bringing positive changes to the lives of others through volunteerism; and

WHEREAS, South Carolina lawyers uphold high standards of civic duty, donating their time, energy, and talents to helping people in need; and

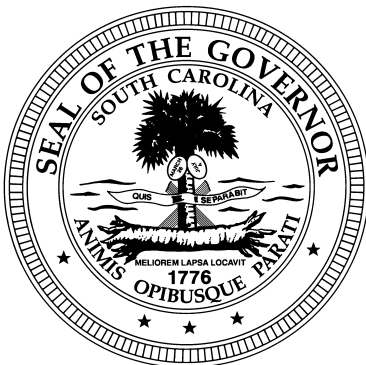

WHEREAS, by working to provide books and clothing for the needy, spending time with students, and helping safeguard the well-being of our young people, lawyers across the Palmetto State contribute positively to our quality of life; and

WHEREAS, the 2006 observance of Community Law Week provides a special opportunity to recognize lawyers across our state and nation for their efforts to improve the lives of our residents while demonstrating the rewards of community service.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 1 – 7, 2006, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize our lawyers for their commitment to service and the spirit of volunteerism.
